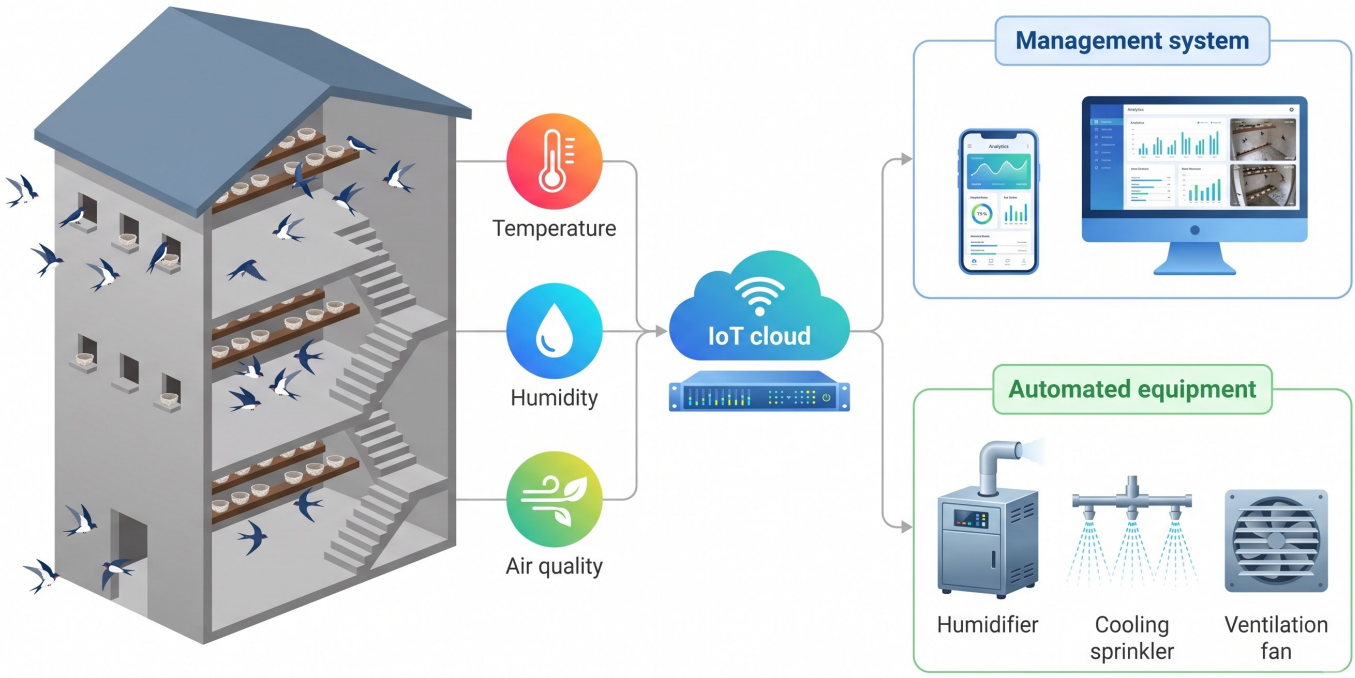
Bird house monitoring

Centralized monitoring system integrating sensors tracks temperature and humidity in bird houses in real time, automatically alerts when there are abnormalities.



Automatically activates the misting system and ventilation fans whenever environmental metrics exceed allowed limits

Predicts and alerts on equipment failure risks early, maintaining stable operational conditions.

Detects and immediately alerts on external threats, including trespassers and predators like rats or owls www.tmainnovation.com (028) 3990 2698 contact@tmainnovation.com

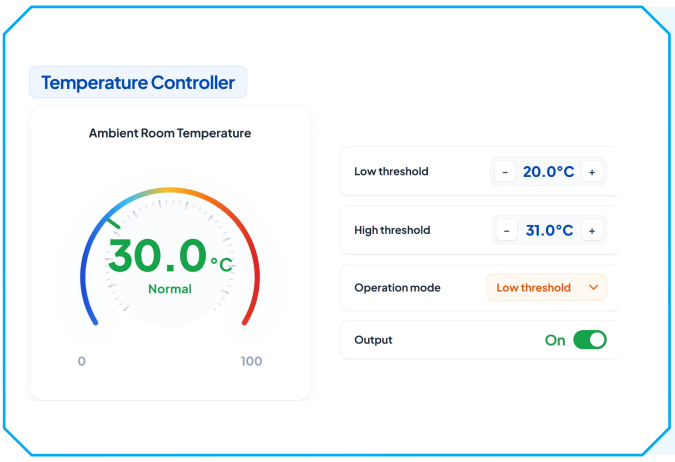
Key features

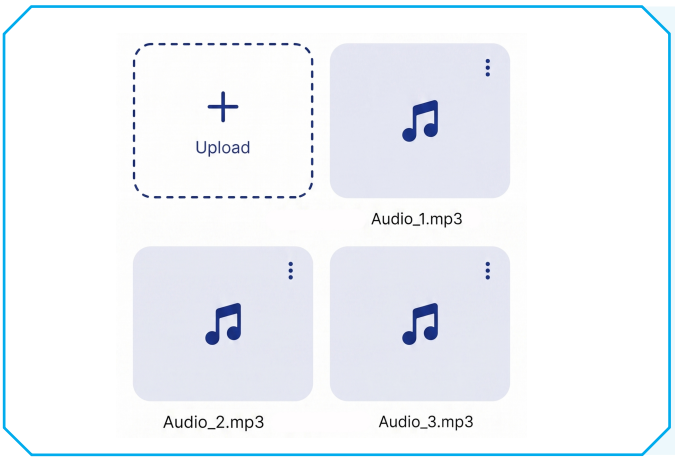
Centralized management

Remotely manage multiple bird houses and facilities on a single centralized dashboard



Environmental monitoring

Monitors indicators like temperature and humidity, while remotely operating environmental control equipment



Audio management

Manage a specialized audio library, helping attract birds to visit and nest

Phone: (028) 3990 2698

Email: contact@tmainnovation.com

Website: www.tmainnovation.com